AMEND Senate Bill No. 3154

House Bill No. 3177*

By adding the following language immediately following the existing amendatory language in subdivision (2) of Section 1:

Any agreement to extend the six (6) year time period must be accomplished through subsequent negotiations and cannot be extended by an automatic renewal provision in an employment contract. Refusal by either party to extend or enter into a new employment contract shall not be considered grounds for terminating an existing employment contract so long as the employment term of the contract then in effect is a term longer than month-to-month.
